Terms of access and use for this website

Thank you for your interest in the products and services of GRIBI Hydraulics AG. By accessing this website and its links, you (as the user) declare that you have understood and accept the following terms of use.

Purpose of this website / No warranty

The purpose of this website is to provide information about our company, services and products. By accessing this website by the user, GRIBI Hydraulics AG does not enter into any contractual relationship with the user. GRIBI Hydraulics AG endeavors to keep the content of this website up to date, complete and correct. However, as this information may be subject to change, we cannot guarantee that it is up-to-date, correct and complete.

Functions of this website

GRIBI Hydraulics AG accepts no responsibility and gives no guarantee that the functions on its website will be available continuously and without interruption, that they will be error-free or that errors will be rectified, or that the website or the respective servers are free from viruses or other harmful components.

Links to non-GRIBI Hydraulics AG websites

This website may contain third-party content and/or links to third-party websites. The links and/or third-party content are not regularly checked by us. We do not assume any responsibility or guarantee for these, their function and content and do not provide any quality assurances for them, in particular not for their reliability, up-to-dateness, accuracy, completeness or legality.

Liability

To the extent permitted by law, we expressly exclude any liability for damages that may somehow be associated with this website. In no event shall we be liable for any direct, indirect or consequential damages arising out of or in connection with the operation or interruption of operation, access to or use of information and functions of this website or access to third-party information (e.g. links) via this website. We also accept no liability for loss or damage caused by Internet hazards or technologically harmful material (e.g. viruses).
